Mineral Point O May 2d 1887

In reply to within will say. that Jacob Redman in 1861 and at the time of his death was the owner of 63 acres of land. which we think was sufficient to support the family at his death the land was sold for $2200 the widow getting about 1/3 a part of which I think she has put into the hands of her son James and she may not be able to get it back. I think James is the party who is agitating this claim I think it is generally admitted that the deceased was a good boy and worked as many other boys for the father. but there was other boys in the family also. who worked for the father. I think the main support was the farm and up to 1861 Mr Jacob Redman was able to perform some labor himself I do not regard it as a meritorious claim This is entirely confidential and I desire that my letter should not be exhibited to the oth side as they are my neighbors

MARRIAGES AND DEATHS

NEELY--February 6, 1881, Mrs. Samuel Neely--aged 90 years.

THOMPSON--February 5, 1881, Mrs. Margaret Thompson--aged 82 years.

WILLIAM COLAR of Loudon township, this county, while visiting a relative in Coshocton county, was found dead in bed Friday morning last. He was brought home on Saturday last for interment. Mr. Colar was about 60 years of age.,and by honesty and thrift had amassed considerable property.

FEBRUARY 18, 1881

WINGERTER--RENNIER--February 8, 1881, by Rev. G. S. Weissenberger, Mr. Martin Wingerter to Miss Mary C. Rennier-both of this county.

HAWK--February 12, 1881, very suddenly, of lung trouble, Mrs. Elizabeth Hawk--aged 61 years and 1 month. Mrs. Hawk was a native of the vicinity of Baltimore, Md., and has lived in Carroll county for more than thirty years. She was united in marriage with the late Robert Hawk about 35 years ago, raising a family of children. Her health has been in a serious condition for twelve years past, and the shocking accident resulting in the death of her husband a few years ago intensified her sharp suffering. Since her widowhood she lived with her son-in-law, Mr. H. Y. Kirby, in Perry township, until last fall-since which time she lived with Mr. Wm. Roudebush, another son-in-law, in Washington township--at whose home she died. The remains were interred in Carrollton cemetery on Monday

Another Sudden Death.--Deaths from heart disease are becoming so numerous in this locality that much comment has been occasioned thereby. We gave a list last week of six of such deaths within five weeks, and now the name of REV. DAVID SPARKS of Monroe township can be added. He retired Monday evening in usual health, and was found dead in bed on Tuesday morning. He was a minister of the Lutheran faith though not in active service. His age was perhaps 35 years. (Type was very blurred--his age could be 35 or 85.)

Fred R. Briggs died at his home in Cleveland Saturday after a lingering illness with smokers' cancer. He had submitted to three operations to get relief. In one of them his mouth was severely cut and most of the tongue removed. He was well known in Carrollton, having been passenger conductor for several years, and later general passenger and ticket agent. He soon would have completed his 50th year.

The remains were interred in Riverside cemetery Monday. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Helfrich attended the funeral, the families having visited back and forth. The widow and two daughters survive. The latter are teachers in the Cleveland schools.

David Spenner Sparks was born Nov. 21, 1857; died March 6, 1912—aged 54 years, 3 months, 15 days. His ailment was diabetes, from which he had been a sufferer for about four years. His death, while not unexpected, was rather sudden, as he had only been confined to the house a few days. He was a son of Rev. David Sparks who preached for many years to different charges in Carroll and Tuscarawas counties. He was familiarly known by name of "Spainer." He was unmarried but had made a home for his mother during many years of her widowhood. Since her death eight years ago his sister Dora had kept house for him. He leaves beside this sister four brothers—Mahlonberg of Atwood, and Charles, Greenwald and Luther, all of Canton. He had been a member of the Lutheran church since early manhood—an honest, straightforward man, and a friend and neighbor who will be missed by all who knew him. Funeral services were held at Zion church on Saturday, and the body was laid to rest beside those of his parents.

James L. Price, who died the other day in a sanitarium in Martinsville, Ind., was a native of Carroll county, born on a farm near New Hagerstown, and was related to the numerous Price families in that locality.

He practiced law in Carrollton in the office now occupied by Prosecuting Attorney Blythe. He was elected prosecuting attorney in 1862 but was defeated for a second term by Robert Raley. Both were new men in Carrollton and unmarried at that time.

In 1865 he moved to Van Wert. The great democratic northwest was then pretty much undeveloped and Van Wert was scarcely as large as Carrollton. In 1868 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Van Wert county and served three terms in succession. Removing to Lima and engaging in the oil business he became quite wealthy, and in 1894 he was elected circuit judge, and at the close of that term of six years was land in the east end and adjusting the boundaries in that quarter.

The council agreed to view the site of the proposed change and adjourned to meet this (Friday) evening.

Devoe Takes Least Gallons: Always

Paint Devoe; it's the cheapest paint in the world; never mind the price; it may or may not be more. Less gallons will paint the house; and the paint will outwear anything.

Skip wear; you've got to wait, to find that out. It covers more; you haven't got to wait to find that out.

It's the cheapest of all; no matter about the price.

Mr A J Smith, Littlestown, Pa, painted his house; his painter told him to get 13½ gellons Devoe; had 4½ left.

Mr A H Rebert, same town, has lots of buildings; paints Devoe; pays 20 cts. more a gallon for it; is glad to; says it's the cheapest paint there is.

That's how.

Died Sunday Feb 3 — Akron Paper Feb 5 1934

price increases by curtailing his or her purchases.

In many of the so-called luxury businesses and in articles which the consumer can do without if compelled by the size of his budget to forego some purchases, the sellers will not raise their prices but will try to do business on the same basis as before, hoping that increased volume and a narrow margin will save them.

Unquestionably we shall see a wave of retail buying for the next few weeks as people stock up with necessities which they will never again see at such low prices.

Already as we see the security market gyrations — and here of course, the element of gambling is back again—there are various securities at new high points which a few weeks ago were at low levels. There is no telling what will happen to stocks or bonds—here are too many factors involved for the average man to risk his earnings on uncertainties, though, to be sure, outright purchase of equities in any sound enterprise is likely to be preferred nowadays to keeping cash idle.

Dollar Buys Less

The purchase of articles of wear and the making of repairs to homes and, indeed, the buying of real estate for investment will take on the proportions of a small boom now as many people try to protect themselves against the rapidly diminishing purchasing power of their money. For as the price level rises, the dollar will buy less and less. Ultimately it should buy what it did in 1926. It buys one and one-third times as much today as it did then. We can live nicely on 1926 prices if we can have 1926 wages and income back.

Labor has many advantages of a theoretical nature under the NRA but it is up against a serious proposition now as it waits for the increases in income that never before have been obtained except as a result of long and persistent negotiation. For business itself is full of uncertainties as to how long the boom will last and there is natural hesitancy to raise the wage level; it is hard to cut it down even when a business goes in the red because a competitor's company may be doing much better and can absorb valued employes.

All this was supposed to be regulated by the planned economy of the new deal but unfortunately the events and forces are so big that as the price level rises it will not be possible for arbitrary steps to be taken by government to protect the individual. The codes are progressing but they are far from the perfect mechanism they should be in order to save the laboring people of America from the hardships of

M. E. church with Rev. R. L. Folk officiating.

Count Berni Vici, a Bavarian nobleman and head of the "Spices" company, was best man, and Miss Harriet Cruise, Radio star, was bridesmaid.

AMERICAN-ITALIAN CIVIC CLUB FORMED

William L. De Leone, Police Prosecutor, Is Elected President

The American-Italian Civic association was organized Sunday at 376 S. Main st., with Police Prosecutor William L. DeLeone as president.

Attorney J. S. Cusimano is first vice president; Thomas Lucien, second vice president; William Martin, third vice president; D. D'Alessio, treasurer; Raymond Fantin, secretary; and Albert Tavolier, sergeant-at-arms. Various committees were appointed.

The organization aims to promote better citizenship among Italian-born residents. A resolution endorsing Attorney Robert Guinther for the post of federal circuit court of appeals judge was passed.

Two other resolutions were addressed to Mayor I. S. Myers. One thanked him for reappointing De Leone as police prosecutor. The other urged continued employment for 18 men of Italian extraction in the water department.

WEST TWP.

m that State to Fayette Co., Pa., at an early day. In 11, Mr. Coulson, with a family of eight children, emigrated from Fayette County to Columbiana Co., Ohio, and settled in West township. The children were Uriah, Jehu, Jr., David, Jabez, Rachel, who married Benjamin Young, Jesse, Amos, Harvey, and Catharine, who married Samuel Smith. The last named three were step-children. Jabez Coulson is the only child of Jehu Coulson now living in the township. His age is eighty-two years. Jabez Coulson's children were Rachel, who became the wife of Jesse Bowersock, Joseph, Benjamin, Pine, who died in 1839, and John.

Nathan Pine, John Messimore, and Philip Wolff settled in West township in 1812. Nathan Pine was a native of Chester Co., Pa., and settled on lands in section 12. Four children came with the family,—Garrett, Isaac, who died in 1861, Lydia, who died in 1843, and Enos. There have been born, since the settlement in West, Lewis and Nathan. Of this family of children, Nathan alone now lives in the township. He married Hannah, daughter of David Davis.

John Messimore came to West from York Co., Pa., bringing a wife and six children, viz.: John, Joseph, Jacob, Henry, George, and Catharine. Henry, the fourth and only son living, still resides in the township, and is the father of four children,—Elizabeth, who married Simon Bernard; Julia, who married Abram Wyman and died in 1868; Lavinia, who married Ephraim Crowl; and Jesse, who married Annie Gamble.

Philip Wolff entered lands purchased from the government on section 13. He raised a family of several sons and daughters, all of whom were natives of the township.

Philip Brenner, a former resident of Virginia, near Harper's Ferry, settled in West in 1813, bringing with him a family of children, viz.: Michael, Philip, Jr., Jacob, Polly, Peggy, John, and Samuel. Of these Michael and John live with their families in the township.

Isaac Willis, the second son of Joseph Willis, came to West township in 1819. In the latter part of the same year he went to Carroll Co., Ohio., where he died soon after his arrival. By his first wife he had five and by his second ten children. John Willis, his son, is the oldest living representative of the family in Columbiana County. John Willis married, first, Cynthia Shepherd, by whom he had one child. His second wife was Mary Crago, by whom he had six children. His third wife was Elizabeth Kelley, who bore him ten children, all of whom are now living.

Among the pioneers of the township, whose settlement dates prior to 1820, there should be mentioned the following names: Andrew Barnes, Jacob Lower, Henry Betts, John Zepernick, Henry Barnes, Jacob Redmond, John Foulks, whose father built the first cabin on the present site of New Lisbon, and possibly others whose names have been forgotten, or who have long since removed from the township, concerning whom no reliable information or accurate date of settlement or removal can be obtained.

Jacob Koffel, a native of Maryland, settled in West in 1823. In the family were several children,—George, John, Jonathan, Samuel, Sally, who married Henry Messimore; Barbara, who married Abram Roose; and Betsey, who married Jacob Lozier.

Joseph Summers settled in West in 1825. His children were Solomon, Daniel, Hannah, who became the wife of Eli S. Hoover; John, and Annie, who married Simon Sturkey. Of these Solomon, Daniel, and John Summers still live in the township.

Joseph Willis, and Joseph, Jr., his son, settled in West in 1822. John Clark, with a family, settled on section 9 in 1831. Nicholas Kurtz settled in Centre township in 1808, where he lived until 1832. He then removed to West. He married Margaret Wiley, and brought to Columbiana County one child, David, who died in 1874. The children born since the settlement were Michael, who died in 1832; Nancy, who married David Crowl, and died in 1865; Jacob, now living in Illinois; Thomas; Susanna, who died in 1842; Daniel, who died in 1875; John, who died in 1849; Charles and William, both of whom are in the Western States.

Taylor Wooley, of Chester Co., Pa., came to West in the spring of 1833 with his wife and two children, Rachel, who married Oliver Taylor, and George.

In the latter part of 1833, Thomas Hawkins, of Washington Co., Pa., located in West. He raised a family of ten children, four of whom are now living. Two of these children, George, and Mary Ann Smith, wife of David Smith, still live in the township. Joseph H. Taylor, with his wife and one child, came to West in 1834. Mr. Taylor still lives at Rochester, and is seventy-five years of age.

John Snyder became a resident of West in 1834.

Eli Taylor came to the township in 1835. He married Susan Wooley, and raised a family of children.

The only representative of New York State among the early settlers of West township was Lewis McCoy, a former resident of Dutchess County. He came to the township in 1836. Mr. McCoy married Elizabeth Essick, daughter of Jacob Essick, of West township, by whom he had five children,—Hannah, who married Henry Smith, and died in 1877; Jacob E., Mordecai O., William L., and Samuel B.

ORGANIZATION.

West was added to the list of townships of Columbiana County in 1816. The clerk's minute-book of proceedings shows the record of elections only since 1823. The records prior to this time were made and kept on loose pieces of paper, which have been lost or destroyed. At an election held April 7, 1823, Jacob Ruff, John Sanor, and Jacob Smith were judges; David and William King, clerks. The trustees elected were Jacob Smith, Jacob Sanor, and Daniel Evans; lister of property, William King. Since 1823 the clerks and treasurers have been as follows:

The Tulpehocken Territory

To the Leni-Lenape, the region known as Tulpehocken, was a territory that contained an area of 270 square mil acres of land. This tract extended from a point just beyond the source of the Tulpehocken on the west, to Creek on the east. The base of the Blue Mountains, or Anton's Wilderness was the boundary line on th the South Mountains, or Lechay's Hills served as the fixed limit on the southern perimeter. Between these ranges and the well situated streams that were located therein, lay one of the most attractive pieces of created. Sometime later, it was to become the gateway to the Lebanon Valley, because of its location on the ea of that scenic wonder. Little doubt why these Sons of Sassoonan were reluctant to release their hold on these lan had inhabited themselves just twenty short years ago. The Tulpehocken Creek and its five tributaries, namely, the North- Spring, and Cacoosing Creeks, provided the necessary elixir for all the living creatures who were making their home ment. The Tulpehocken Creek alone measured twenty six miles in length, while its branches added another forty nine miles of water courses drained three-fourths of the district. A name other than Tulpehocken for the territory w inappropriate.
